

Caterina Lucchi, Bag

The Latest Finds

that don't shy away from sky-high heels, featuring metal studs that give them something else in common with clogs aside from just the materials. Or if you want to be sure to be noticed as you run backstage, the multi-colored pumps are the top choice with the silvery ankle boots with a solid heel in different colors coming in as a close second. You can pair these with showy little bags alternated with mid-sized bucket bags, rounded postman's bags and large backpacks perfect for an outdoor concert. When it comes to jewels, oversized bangles stand out as do necklaces with pendants and woven leather bracelets for a free-and-easy style that does away with any sense of ostentation. No "neo-hippy" wardrobe would be complete without those wire-rimmed tea

Caterina Lucchi